BREAD LOAF SCHOOL OF ENGLISH

Preliminary Announcements

You are registering at what is called the Inn Office. All matters relative to your room and to your board, mails, and any charges you may incur (apart from the regular bill for tuition, board and room) ought to be referred to this office.

For details regarding the management of the School, please make inquiry at the Director's Office. All matters pertaining to your initial registration and payment of bills, information about courses, lectures, graduate credit, etc., should be referred to this office. Director H.G. Owen and Miss Elizabeth Nesbitt are the staff to whom you should bring requests for information about the details of the school. Later you will be informed as to what particular members of the staff are responsible for specific duties.

Procedure as to Registration

(1) Students who have completed registration in advance should obtain registration cards from the Director's office. Students who have not completed registration in advance must personally consult with the Director concerning their choices of courses. Appointments may be made with Miss Nesbitt.

(2) Registration cards obtained at the Director's office should be presented to Mrs. Powell who will be in the Little Theater from two o'clock on. A representative from the college treasurer's office will be there at the same time. It is requested that all bills which have not been paid be attended to at this time.

(3) In making your choice of courses, please keep in mind the fact that if you wish to change your status from that of an auditor to that of a student in any course, this change must be made on or before July 4th. A student may change his status from that of a student to that of an auditor before July 8th, but ALL changes in courses must be made through the director's office.

Mail schedule

Mail will be ready for distribution at the following hours:

10:30 a.m.
3:30 p.m.

Outgoing mail must be posted not later than:

9:00 a.m.
2:00 p.m.

Preliminary Announcements

Meal Hours

Beginning tonight, the regular seating plan will go into effect and, as last year, there will be two seatings. Please consult the chart on the dining room door to ascertain your table assignment and to find out whether you are in the early or late group. The 12:45 and 6:00 meals will be announced by the bugle, while the 1:00 and 6:15 meals will be announced by the class bell.

Daily		Sunday
Breakfast	7:30 - 8:15	Breakfast	8:00 - 9:00
Luncheon	12:45 & 1:00	Dinner	1:00
Dinner	6:00 & 6:15	Supper	6:00

Saturday
Breakfast	8:00 - 9:00
Luncheon	1:00
Dinner	6:00

Since most of the waiters and waitresses are students, it is urgently requested that an effort be made on the part of all students to come to meals promptly, especially breakfast, so that those who are waiting on table may have a chance to reach their classes on time. In the morning, the door will be closed at eight fifteen, and no students may be served breakfast after that time.

Gratuities

Students and guests of the Inn are requested not to tip members of the staff and employees of the Inn. Any person connected with the Inn is glad to minister to the comforts of our guests in every possible way.

Bread Loaf Stationery

The new Bread Loaf Inn stationery may be purchased at the Inn Office----- ten sheets and ten envelopes for twenty cents.

Bookstore

The Bookstore has on hand supplies, textbooks, candy, tennis balls, cigarettes, etc. It is urgently requested that students purchase their textbooks immediately as it is frequently necessary for us to order additional copies. It is impossible this year to allow the students to operate charge accounts with the bookstore, and we hope that the students will cooperate by not asking for any favors in this direction.

Preliminary Announcements

The regular bookstore hours are as follows:

8:00 - 8:30 a.m.
1:15 - 2:00 p.m.
7:00 - 7:15 p.m.

BREAD LOAF PARKING REGULATIONS

A preliminary notice concerning parking has been made in the catalogue. New and stringently enforced state laws prohibit the parking of cars on the side of the highway, and it is requested that students and guests endeavor to keep the road clear in front of the Inn. In years past, lawns have been utilized for parking, but the school has been making a considerable effort to improve the appearance of the grounds, and we hope that all students will cooperate and keep their cars off the grass. Students and guests living in Birch and Maple cottages may park their cars in the space beyond Maple; students at Brandy Brook, in the space by the side of their cottage. All other students should use the parking space near the barns.

The bellboy on duty in the front office will assist you in parking your car. Keys may be permanently deposited in the Inn Office. See that your keys are tagged with your name, number and the make of your car. Leave word at the Inn Office when and where you want your car, and it will be delivered. When you return, your car will be parked, on request at the office, and the keys will be retained. Students, of course, are free to park their own cars if they wish to do so. Should they so desire, they are earnestly requested to return to their own parking spaces.

Tops should be put up and windows closed when the car is left in front of the Inn. The car will be parked in the same condition in which it was delivered to the bellboys, and the school cannot be held responsible for any damaged incurred while the car is in the parking space.

If any person should desire a car cover, the same may be purchased cheaply from a nearby retail house. The Inn possesses two covers which will be rented.

Bread Loaf Greet's You!

The Crumb extends to you its welcome to Bread Loaf. From time to time it will bring you notices concerning the activities of the school. It is customary to deliver each issue at the noon meal, but occasionally it is necessary to issue extra news and notes that would be of interest to both present and past Bread Loafers. Members of the school may leave contributions at the Director's Office.

In our preliminary announcement we indicated the duties of both the Inn Office and the Director's Office. If you did not receive your copy, please ask the clerk at the Inn Office for your copy. The staff hopes that your stay will be a pleasant one. The staff of the school is composed largely of Middlebury students who desire in every way to minister to the wants of our guests. They do not expect to be tipped, and guests are requested not to offer such remuneration. We hope that Bread Loaf students will understand that our facilities, except in Maple Cottage, are not hotel facilities, but are simple dormitory accommodations. We wish to make our guests as comfortable as possible and shall try to meet your needs. (Please leave suggestions concerning room equipment, repairs, etc., for Mr. Henry at the desk.)

Notice to students

The attention of students is called to a statement made in the preliminary announcements. In making your choice of courses, please keep in mind the fact that if you wish to change your status from that of a student to that of an auditor, you may do so before July 8th. But if you wish to change your status from that of an auditor to regular student in any course, this change must be made on, or before July 4th.

Guests at Bread Loaf will find numerous games such as croquet, clock golf, badminton, pingpong, and archery provided for their enjoyment. June 29, 1938 (continued)

New water supply

A new, enlarged water supply has been provided for the Inn which will insure exceptionally pure drinking water from mountain springs. Fire hydrants have been installed at various places about the grounds. In the larger cottages fire alarm buttons have been placed in prominent positions. These buttons set off a siren which gives the general alarm. In case of emergency the alarm should be sounded by any person discovering a fire. All buildings are equipped with fire escapes which should be located at your earliest convenience.

Special announcement

Mrs. Morize's course in Elizabethan music will meet one and one half hours on Tuesday and one hour on Friday.

You will find at your places this noon an application card which should be filled out and returned to Mr. Owen if you desire to secure graduate credits for courses taken at Bread Loaf. If you have already filled out one of these cards, it is not necessary to file another. If you are uncertain whether or not you have filled out this application please consult the school office. Each card should be returned to the Director's office with a transcript of your college record (not merely an official certificate of the possession of the baccalaureate degree as indicated in the card) which must be obtained from the Registrar of the college or university which you attended. When this transcript arrives please bring the card with the transcript to Mr. Owen's Office, and proper acknowledgment will be made. It is important that this matter be attended to immediately as all cards must be filed before August 5 and no cards will be accepted without the accompanying transcript. Persons who have already obtained their M.A. degrees, students auditing courses, and others not taking courses for graduate credit should not fill out these cards. Please leave all unused cards on your tables so that they may be collected for future use.

Robert Frost Scholarship

John W. Atherton of Amherst College is the holder of the Robert Frost Scholarship for the 1938 session.

Errands in Middlebury

In the old days it was a day's journey in to Middlebury. A tradition arose by which each traveller from this distant outpost brought back all the supplies for the Bread Loaf community that he could carry. In our own day there are still some unable to get away from this mountain fastness. It would be much appreciated if, before leaving, the more fortunate would take a look in the box marked "Errands to be Done in Middlebury" which is located in Miss Nesbitt's Office.

The Sembrich Studio

Students interested in affairs musical should visit the studio of Madame Sembrich at Bolton, Lake George, New York. The drive of two hours to Bolton is one of the loveliest in the Adirondacks, and the studio contains an unique collections of mementoes of a great career. Letters from illustrious figures of the political, literary and musical worlds, gifts to Madame Sembrich from crowned heads, manuscripts of famous composers, etc., make a fascinating record of the Golden Age of Metropolitan Opera history.

Lydia Hoffmann-Behrendt will present a piano recital tonight at 8:00 in the Little Theater. The program will consist of eighteenth, nineteenth century, and contemporary music. Madame Hoffmann-Behrendt is known as the foremost interpreter of the moderns now appearing in America.

What Is Contemporary Music?

Tomorrow morning at 10:00 in the Little Theater Madame Hoffmann-Behrendt has very generously consented to speak informally about the modern music on her program. "THE VOICE OF THE LOW I.Q."

Yeah, I'm in the special class this term. Sure, I like it all right; we have lots of fun and the work's got some sense to it. I can do it. Why did I get put there? Well, I ain't so sure. The report said I had a low I.Q., but nobody noticed it until last spring when I couldn't get along in Miss Brown's class. She gave me the test and when I handed in my paper she looked at it and said, "Just what I thought. I knew he didn't belong there."

Yeah, it was something they call an Intelligence Test. It was awfully funny. At first I thought it was a joke but it turned out it wasn't. You had to put crosses on pictures and circles under 'em and lines around 'em and dots over 'em till I sorta got mixed up so I just drew a line right through the middle of all of 'em. There was sentences to write yes or no after; sentences like this: "a carpenter builds houses". I wrote no because my old man's a carpenter and he ain't built a house in four years. He's working on the railroad track. The boy that sat next to me wrote no on every other sentence and then filled up the rest with yes, and he got a sweet mark. I read so slow I only got four done before the time was up. I get so tired of being hurried all the time.

A Tree, a Fish, a Cake of Ice; Look at this. It was so funny I tore out the page and kept it. See, three pictures - a tree - a fish - a cake of ice. I'll read what it tells you to do. "John is ten years old and his sister, Mary, is eight. If John is not Mary's brother draw a line from the fish to the cake of ice. If Mary and John are twins print your middle name under the tree and if you have no middle name put a zero there. If they are not twins print your last name on the tree. If Mary is younger than John write the Roman Numeral Eight in the upper left hand corner. If they both go to school write your full name at the bottom of the page." I'm never sure just how to spell my name so I didn't even try this one.

Miss Brown didn't like it because I always asked a lot of questions. She thought I was being fresh but I wasn't. There's a lotta things I wanta know about. I never got mad when she asked me questions all the time. I answered them. I've got a lot of answers but they always seem to fit the wrong questions. Anyway, everything's changing all the time so what's the use of learning a lotta things tod when maybe they won't even be true by tomorrow. I know heaps of things Miss Brown don't know. Like where to find birds' nests and how to fix a leaky pipe and what the baseball scores are. She has to send for the janitor when the lights go out or when a window shade tears.

Sure, I'm glad I'm in a special class. I get lots more attention. Seems like if you're awful smart or awful dumb they do a lot for you in school, but if you're just what they call "normal" they just leave you set. I heard the School Psychologist - that's a man that comes in just before promotion time and tells the teacher they're not promoting us. - he told Miss Brown it was an account of my grandfather and the re of my ancestors. She said it was kinda late to do anything about that now, and he said it was, but I must have the proper training so I'd be a good ancestor. Gosh, I don't wanna be an ancestor. I'm going to be a plumber!

Portrait Exhibit

Through the generosity of Miss Jessie Frothingham a group of portraits in mezzotint and line-engraving are now on exhibition in the upper room of the library. English and French artists of the 17th and 18th centuries, the golden age of portraiture, are represented. You are urged to take advantage of this unusual opportunity.

Old-Fashion Dance Saturday

Yesterday's announcement of Bread Loaf's Saturday night social event was merely the Victorian way of saying, "there will be a dance in the Little Theater at 9:30 for everyone whether you prefer the Virginia Reel or the Big Apple". You may be interested to know that in that staid era dinner was served during an intermission from 11:00 to 2:00 after which, presumably, dancing was continued until a respectable hour in the morning.

Parking

We again remind you of the rigid state parking laws, and strongly urge that you do not leave cars parked along the road in front of the Inn during any hour of the day. The road is patrolled regularly and the Inn will not be responsible for any accidents or court summons.

To Bread Loaf Inn

By Rabbi Solomon Foster

Bread Loaf Inn is a shelter set high in the hills,
Recreating faint hearts, tired minds and weak wills,
Enervated by strife and the fears of the age
And the follies, futilities, frenzies that rage.
Down the valley confusions and tumult hold sway;
Light and love here are found, truth and right point the way
Of the dawn of new hope and deep faith for our day.
Aspiration and vision and art nourish man
Far more subtly than bread sustains life's mortal span.
In the heights of Vermont a great truth comes to birth,
Needing only conviction to unite through the earth
Near and far, new and old, soil and soul to gain worth.

There will be dancing in the Ripton Community House from 9:00 - 1:00 tonight.

You may be sure that your contributions will be greatly appreciated by our Ripton neighbors.

Conservation Program

Many of our beautiful wild flowers are disappearing because people, through ignorance, pick the blossoms and the strain cannot be renewed. Some of these flowers have in the past been abundant around Bread Loaf, but have been threatened with extinction by careless picking. Among the flowers which we ask all our students and friends not to pick, but to enjoy in their native habitat, are purple fringed orchis, any of the lady slippers, Indian pipes, and the bottle gentian. We are especially concerned with the rapid disappearance hereabouts of the fringed orchis and the Indian pipes. The latter have been dug up for table decoration in recent years till our woods are depleted. Please look, enjoy and leave in the woods for the next comer and the next generation to see.

By Margaret C. Moist

If anyone should tell you that it's soup to tote a trunk
From the bottom of the mountain to the top, it is the bunk!

He knows he lies!

If anyone should tell you that it takes a lot of spunk
To eat a dozen steaks at once, you tell him that's the bunk --

Don't compromise!

If someone claims his only shirt has never stretched nor shrunk,
Just put him in a thunder storm. He'll know it is the bunk,

When it dries!

If someone says a porcupine is better than a skunk:
That either one is nature's worst, just tell him that's the bunk!

It's little flies!

If some declare the journey down is just a skip and plunk
From stone to stone with studied ease, you tell them it's the ^{skunk} /bunk,

It's exercise!

If someone bids you name for him, in sober mein or drunk,
The hardest thing encountered on the trip -- just say --THE BUNK!
